FUTURE LEADER AWARDS 2018

The Future Leader Awards 2018 is part of INTO's commitment to identify and reward the best and brightest students who plan to study in our UK Centres in September 2018.

INTO» FUTURE LEADER AWARDS 2018

Total scholarship fund worth £100,000
for 2018 offer holders

Individual awards of up to £10,000
for highest performing students

Who can apply?

- The Future Leader Awards will support high achieving students who are looking to study with INTO in September 2018.
- High-quality, academically-able students who want to study at INTO UK Centres.
- Students must hold an offer on an International Foundation or International Year One Course in order to be eligible to participate.

Award assessment format

- Students attend a face-to-face, one-day assessment where applicants will be asked to complete a three-part test, comprising: Mathematics, English and Global Affairs.
- The final decision on successful candidates will be made by an expert panel which will include a Regional Director, members of our Regional Office Team and Senior Colleagues from the UK.
- The assessments will be completed and the awards announced on Monday 28 May 2018.

What is expected of Future Leaders?

Students receiving a Future Leader Award will be asked to act as student ambassadors and take the lead in activities that will support others and feed into their future careers.

Activities might include:

- Providing a video testimonial about their study experience.
- Providing a testimonial after progressing to their chosen degree programme.
- Attending events, advocating their study experience to visitors.*
- Taking an active role in promoting positive student experiences.*
- Telling others about their experience, which may include: Instagram or other relevant social media posts, blog or article writing, testimonials.*
- Leading on centre-based volunteering projects, eg INTO Giving activity.

*with support from staff
